

PRESS RELEASE 14.07.08

Gallery Red opens on Glebe's gallery strip on July 25th: a new venue showcasing the talent of emerging artists from across Sydney. The opening exhibition features work inspired by the theme 'RED'.

Grand Opening Exhibition - RED

Friday 25th July, 6-8pm

Gallery Red, Shop 11, 131-145 Glebe Point Rd, Glebe 2037

Gallery Red is pleased to announce its official opening, featuring works by Carolyn McKay, Zoi Papatheodorou, Matthew Syres, JD Reforma, and many others.

Our opening exhibition features young artists who have studied and travelled throughout the world, from South Korea and Japan to Italy, Israel and the USA. From first exhibitors to Archibald finalists, this exhibition highlights the wealth of talent that young artists of Sydney have to offer.

Gallery Red is committed to featuring the best of Sydney's new and emerging talent and to creating real and exciting opportunities for young artists living and working in New South Wales.

The Grand Opening will be followed by our first feature artist show, Urban, opening Friday 15th August, highlighting works by Shane Robertson, Ben Rak and Merric Brettle.

Our Gallery Directors and the artists are available for interview. The opening exhibition will be available for preview showings from July 19th. Please call Anthony Cummins on (02) 9692 0030 to make an appointment, or email art@galleryred.com.au.

About: Gallery Red is a new venue that aims to showcase the wealth of emerging talent in Sydney's artist community. It will feature both gallery-curated and artist curated exhibitions, and support the artists and craftspeople emerging from our colleges, schools and universities. Red aims to foster young artists and provide a stepping stone between emerging artists and commercial galleries.

Curator: Allison O'Sullivan (allison@galleryred.com.au)

Allison studies Art Theory and Administration at UNSW College of Fine Arts. She has previously been involved with other local galleries, notably Gallery Adagio.

Director: Anthony Cummins (ant@redantmedia.com.au)

Anthony is a graphic designer and Creative Director of Red Ant Media, an agency which offers design and web services to the SME sector. Anthony studied graphic design at the University of Newcastle, and is a member of the Design Institute of Australia.

Opening Hours: Monday-Friday 10-5, Saturday 10-4
